Numb. 757.

So th. Carolina-Gazette.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From MONDAY October 10th, to MONDAY October 17th, 1748.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, for June, 1748.

PETERSBURGH.

THE Empress being acquainted, by Lord Hyndford, with the preliminaries and cessation of arms, declared great satisfaction at peace being restored to Europe; tho' it deprived her troops of the opportunity of signalizing their bravery and zeal for the maritime powers; and indeed, in other respects it cannot affect her majesty, as her troops are absolutly engaged for three years. They are now in Upper Silesia, and about to enter Bohemia, where they are to be cantoned for some time; however, magazines are preparing at Nuremberg, and other places on the road, in case they should at last advance into the Netherlands.

GERMANY.

Vienna. Their imperial majesties reviewed the first and second column of the Russian troops at Brinn and Holitschen in Moravia, were highly pleased at their fine appearance, and their exact discipline, and ordered 1000 florins to each Regiment.

ITALY.

The long meditated invasion of Corsica has miscarry'd, for the Genoese garrison in Bastia, the capital, made so resolute a defence, that the imperial commander was forced to retreat to St. Fiorenzo. The brave governor, M. Spinola, wanting ammunition, particularly ball, made use of pewter utensils, and the lead of gutters of houses. There has been also a pretty bloody action on the continent, in which both sides pretend to the advantage. But on the 10th Inst. N.S. Gen. Brown received a letter from the D. de Richlieu, who commands the Genoese and their auxiliaries, with a copy of the act of accession of the Empress to the preliminaries. This produced some conferences between the generals, who at last agreed to a suspension of arms on the 15th, and the river Vara, in the state of Genoa, whither the imperial troops had penetrated in the Eastern Riviera, and taken several posts, is to be the limit between the two armies.

FRANCE.

As the good policy of France, in consenting to a cessation of arms, appears more and more, in the need she had of it herself, 'tis to be hoped she will pursue peace with sincerity. Her starving subjects are relieved, her commerce revived, and her colonies and fleets redeemed from destruction; and for his good work, the title of duke and peers of France have been conferred on his two plenipotentiaries, the Marq. de Puysieux, and count de St. Severin, by the French king, who at the same time declared their services more acceptable to him than Lowendahl's and Saxe's.

NETHERLANDS.

Letters from Aix la Chapelle leave no room to doubt of a general pacification, all the ministers having signed the preliminaries. The Remarks published on the conditions, are too vague and various to be recited.

Lond. June 20. Came an account by express, that the court of Spain had acceded to the preliminaries of peace.

The armed vessels in the service of his Majesty's navy were all ordered to be paid off and discharged.

June 30. The lords regents have given orders for discharging 4 regiments of marines, and two new raised regiments of foot; and his majesty's ships the Berwick, Russel, Diamond, and Jersey, are to be paid off and discharged; also the Wager, Terror, Folkstone, and Launceston.

The parliament met and was further prorogued to Tuesday, August 30.

SCOTLAND.

The disarming act imports, that gentlemen of 400 l. valued rent are entitled to keep for that use 3 guns, 4 pair of pistols, and a sword or hanger; that the plaid, little kelt, and philibeg, are not to be worn after December 25 next: The other parts of the Highland dress are tolerated for some time longer; and the episcopal clergy are discharged from their ministerial office, unless they have a licence from a bishop of England or Ireland.

Mantua, July 2. The Armistice is now become general throughout all the Troops employ'd in Italy; being declar'd for those of Spain on the 26th ult. and on the 28th for those of the Republick of Genoa.

Antwerp, July 15. The French are actually selling their Magazines of Provisions, as bread, butter, Cheese, &c. which they had formed in this City from whence 'tis inferred, that they are preparing to bid us farewel, and yield up the Place to the Austrian Troops.

Aix-la-Chapelle, July 20. The Restitution of the several Places in Flanders will take place next Month, and it is said will be begun by Bergen-op-Zoom and Dutch Flanders; after which they will proceed to the Evacuation of the Austrian Low-Countries; but it is assur'd that his Most Christian Majesty will keep two or three Fortresses there, till the Court of France receives Advice of the Restitution of Cape-Breton.

July 21. So perfect a Harmony prevails amongst the Plenipotentiaries, that it is not doubted but that the definitive Treaty between the high contracting Powers will be ready to be sign'd the 15th or the 20th of next Month, to the End that Peace may be proclaim'd at Paris the 25th, the Feast of St. Louis.

Turin, July 6. We hear from Tortona, that General Nadasti having concluded the Armistice with the French and Spaniards on the 25th past, and with the Genoese on the 28th, the Communication with Genoa by Porto Franco has in consequence thereof been open'd.

Aix-la-Chapelle, July 23. Count Bentinck, who is lately returned hither from the Hague, is suddenly to make a Tour thither, before the Conference for a General Peace is opened. In the mean Time, we know nothing certain of the opening the said Conferences nor of what Towns or Districts the French are to gain by this War.

Madrid, July 8. The Ministry are actually settling the Reform which the King has resolv'd to make in the Troops; and it is pretended this Reduction will be 25,000 Men; but it is not to take place till after the Conclusion of a general Peace, and Don Philip, being put in Possession of the Dutchies of Parma, Placentia, and Guastalla.

Paris, July 12. A Report is current here, that the King has notified to the Dutch Plenipotentiaries at Aix la Chapelle, that if the Russian Troops continue their march, and advance farther than Egra, on the Borders of Bohemia, the Fortifications of Maestricht and Bergen-op-Zoom shall be forthwith blown up.

Madrid, July 9. The Court has signified to the Magistrates in Andalusia, That they are to consider the Orders forbidding all Communication with the Fortresses of Gibraltar, as void, from the Day of the signing the Preliminaries; so that the Communication with that Place is open as in Time of full Peace.

LONDON, July 12.

There is a Report that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will be appointed Lord high Admiral of England.

July 15. Passports are gone over from Spain, sign'd the 6th of July, N.S. by his Most Catholick Majesty; but Ships will not go to trade with Spain till the Beginning of August next: In the mean time Passports are provisionally come from Madrid, in which the Ships that are going to Ports in other Kingdoms, &c are permitted to go into any Spanish Ports unmolested, to be provided, if in Necessity, with Water, Provisions, Repairs, &c.

July

July 16. According to ſome Advices, it depends entirely upon the King's good Pleaſure, whether and how far, the Ruſſian Auxiliaries are to advance, not only their Sovereign, but the States General, who pay a Part towards their Subſidy, having referred that Matter altogether to his Majeſty's Wiſdom; And as, notwithſtanding the continued March of thoſe Troops, there appears to be the greateſt Harmony betwixt their Britannick and Pruſſian Majeſties, there is no room to believe the Report, that the latter has expreſſed his Diſlike of the continuance of this March, which will put the Allies in a Condition to take the Field again with Advantage, in caſe any unforeſeen Difficulty ſhould interrupt the great Work of Peace.

July 22. 'Tis reported that Mr. Keene, the Britiſh Miniſter at Liſbon, will ſpeedily repair to Madrid, in order to terminate, by a private Convention, whatever concerns the two Crowns.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, June 20.

"M. de Chavigny, Ambaſſador from France, and the Duke de Soto Major, Ambaſſador from Spain, have notified to the Court the Signature of the preliminary Articles of Peace, and return'd Thanks to the King, in the Name of their Moſt Chriſtian and Catholick Majeſties, for the Offer his Majeſty made of his Mediation to accomodate the Differences betwixt the Powers engag'd in War. The King expreſſed to thoſe Ambaſſadors his Satisfaction at the happy Succeſs of the Conferences at Aix la Chapelle, and for that the Parties intereſted had found Means to come to ſuch an Underſtanding among themſelves, as would tend to re-eſtabliſh the Tranquility of Europe.

We are certainly informed, that as ſoon as the Peace is quite ſettled, and the Buſineſs of Parliament by that Means diminiſhed, the firſt Thing undertaken will be the Regulation of the Engliſh Plantations and Colonies, which by the abuſe of Power that has been repoſed in the Governors, have been ſo diſtreſſed as to call loudly for the Aſſiſtance of Parliament.

And we alſo learn, that the Times agreed upon for a Suſpenſion Arms between England, Spain, and Genoa, are as follow, viz.

Twelve Days from the Time of their Miniſters ſigning the Preliminaries, viz. the 17th June O.S. for the Channel and North Seas.

Six Weeks from the Channel, the Britiſh Seas, and the North Seas, as far as Cape St. Vincent.

Six Weeks from and beyond the Cape, as far as the Line, whether in the Ocean or in the Mediterranean.

Six Months beyond the Line, and in all other parts of the world without Exception.

We hear that ſeveral Men of War are ordered to go to Cape Breton, in order to carry the Engliſh Forces, &c. to Annapolis Royal from that Iſland.
